in Iwate

5th floor International Exchange Center

Sekai to no Kakehashi Club

(The bridge connecting the world together)

2nd stage – Let's draw up a vision for Iwate's future!

► Conference Room 501

Dear Young People of Iwate...

[A.M.] Reports from high school and university students about their experiences abroad

[P.M.] Workshop – Do! Connect Iwate with the world!

Let's connect Iwate with the world. We'll work together with exchange students to draw up a vision for Iwate's future by thinking about what kind of things we want to do, and what we can do right now!

One World Café

Fair trade coffee, soft drinks, snacks, and many different kinds of food and drink from all around the world will be sold.

Traditional Clothing Dress-Up

You can try on amazing traditional clothes from many different countries. Find something you like and put it on - you'll feel like you're in another country!

Educational Teaching Materials on International Understanding for sale

Kids' Corner

Come on over, kids!

We have toys, instruments, and games from many different countries, as well as story time with foreign children's books, card-making, and more!

Sneak a peak into a foreign country!

4th floor Citizen's Plaza

World Area

Let's see the world... in Iwate!

This is an area where people from all over the world who are currently residing in Iwate will teach us something from their home country's culture – pretty much whatever they have up their sleeves to surprise us with! There are refreshments and snacks to taste, as well as games and activities to learn and enjoy together!

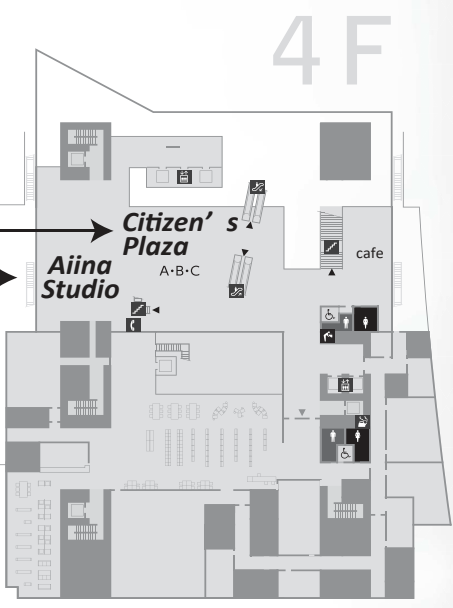

Attending countries/regions:

England, France, U.S., Canada, Colombia, Ecuador, El Salvador, Nigeria, Tunisia, China, Taiwan, Nepal, Thailand, Singapore, Indonesia, India, Philippines (we still have a lot of countries looking to participate, so keep a lookout!)

4th floor Aiina Studio

STAGE

We have so many fun activities that everyone can enjoy together at the stage!
An Indian game of tag(!?) called "kabaddi", Indonesian dance, Philippine dance... and so much more. Watch the fun unfold, or join in yourself!
Why not come by to see sports, games, music, and dances from all over the world?

Please visit our website for the updates of each programs!
